23812 [589] > this throws to a Facebook hex [5890ff]911
reaction interface 2016 I've got the screenshots of the background page coding.

NB the 23182 [doesn't matter which order or the pattern it's the same value in the EM field which fuses them together like a gene-sequence]

These guys are terrorists away were, old Micorsoft codeplex project which kept running in the background of socials, data miners using an Uncle Sam algorithm, Clauset-Newman-Moore which creates supermergers in the GPS grid because they republish the graphs under new url codings- they are hijackers.

Their company website:

Serial number: 100191 < There it is.

ns1.siteground.net 75.2.77.104

ns2.siteground.net 99.83.229.113 < This one: 23182-911

That's the merge at Havana- and via Facebook we get the 5890ff-911

So what's the issue: Affected individuals reported sudden head pressure, piercing noises, vertigo, nausea, dizziness, and cognitive or balance problems.

Their phones, Facebook accounts and Marc Smith, Director of NodeXL and Connected Action. The Social Media "Research" Foundation.
